To which will be joined 15 Men of War which are fitting out in Holland, by Order of the States General.

Ratisbonne March 3. Yesterday arrived here Signior Bevilacqua, the Popes Nuncio, and in a day or two will continue his journey to Nimeguen. The Imperialists are preparing to take the Field, which they will do so soon as the Season is proper. From Hungary they write, that many of the Hungarians come in, and submit themselves daily.

Strasburgh, March 7. The Suisse Cantons are still assembled at Baden, not having as yet resolved on the answer to be returned to the instances made by the French Ambassador, concerning their not permitting any Troops to pass through their Territories; though in the mean time the said Cantons have, it's said, resolved to arm, and to put themselves in a posture capable to secure them against the resentment of either side, which they may happen to displease, by the resolution they shall think fit to take. The French continue to work for the demolishing the Citadel of Saverne, where the Sieur de Monclar, lately declared the Kings Lieutenant General in Alsace, at present is, to hasten the said work. From Nancy they write, that they likewise continued to work with great diligence to perfect the Fortifications of that City; that the Mareschal Crequi was gone from thence to Metz, being appointed to command the Kings Forces on the side of the Mosselle this Campagne. From Vienna they write, that many of the Hungarians come in, and submit themselves daily, upon the publication of the Emperors pardon, and that those that continue in Arms are very inconsiderable; that Count Montecuculi purposed to begin his journey from Vienna to the Army, about the latter end of this month; and that there was great appearance that the Marriage, which hath been so often spoken of, between the Queen Dowager of Poland the Emperors sister, and the Duke of Lorrain, would be suddenly concluded.

Cologne, March 12. The Troops of the Bishop of Osnabrug which are quartered in this Diocess, have received Orders to hold themselves ready to march, in order to which they have summoned the Country to pay the arrears of the Contributions demanded by them. The Elector of Brandenburgh is still at Hamm, though he is so well recovered, as to be able to part from thence to Wesel about the latter end of this week. From Frankfort they write, that the Imperial Troops begin to march from several parts, in order to the giving the French a diversion, who, we are told, have at present most of their Forces in Flanders. From Metz our Letters advise, that the Mareschal Crequi having notice thereof, was likewise preparing on his part to oppose them, and accordingly was drawing all the Troops he could together.

Hague, March 13. The 10 instant the States of Holland were again assembled, in order to the raising the monies necessary for the supporting the charges of this Campagne. Yesterday the Regiment of Guards of Foot, consisting in 24 Companies, marched from hence, being led by their Colonel the Count de Solmes, in order to their embarking on the Vessels that are to transport them to the place of Rendezvous, whither all our Cavalry marches by Land. The States General have finally resolved upon the report made to them by the Deputies of the Admiralties, that 15 Men of War, three Fireships, and three Galliots, shall be forthwith fitted out to act in the Baltick, in conjunction with the Danish Fleet. On the 18 instant will be performed at Amsterdam the Funerals of the late Lieutenant Admiral de Ruyter, with great Pomp and Solemnity.

Diste, March 16. His Highness having been the 14 instant in the Assembly of the States of Holland, and yesterday in that of the States General to take his leave of them, parted from hence this afternoon towards Cleves, where he will have a Conference with the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Bishop of Osnabrug, and that done, his Highness will pass to his Army in Flanders, which in the mean time is marching thither under the command of Count Waldeck. The Sieur Meyercron, the Danish Envoy here, has given in a Memorial to the States, in which he desires they will permit him to raise in these Countries a certain number of Seamen, for the service of the King his Master; to which the States have not as yet given any answer, but in the mean time have ordered that the Equipage for the Baltick be proceeded in with all diligence. From Germany they write, that the Duke of Lorrain had received positive Orders from the Emperor, forthwith to march with such Regiments as he could conveniently draw together, without losing too much time to pass the Rhine; some add, that his Highness will come down with the said Forces towards Flanders: but this is certain, that very considerable Magazines are providing at Treves and Luxemburg, for the use of the said Imperial Troops. We are told
